SIGNAGE CEASEFIRE DIRECTIVE

A57 TERRITORIAL DISPUTE // OFFICIAL DIPLOMATIC COMMUNICATION

RECIPIENT:
McDONALD'S (UK)
COMMANDING OFFICER
COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENT // SHEFFIELD REGION

FROM:
COMMANDER VRAX
FIELD INTELLIGENCE OFFICER
VEYDRAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES

01 // INTELLIGENCE ASSESSMENT: THE ADHESIVE ANNIHILATION

My initial reconnaissance identified TWO McDonald's advertising signs on the disputed A57 roundabout.

These installations subsequently became targets of adhesive warfare, during which the insignia of BJ's Burger Shack was repeatedly applied to McDonald's advertising infrastructure.

I have designated this incident THE ADHESIVE ANNIHILATION.

Rather than exercising restraint, McDonald's has now deployed TWO ADDITIONAL SIGNS.
Your advertising presence has doubled. I counted them. There are now four.

ANCIENT HUMAN WISDOM
"Do not put all your signs on one roundabout."

I understand this wisdom has been passed down through countless generations.
Your organisation appears to have disregarded it.
I am beginning to understand why your species requires so many warning labels.

02 // PROPOSED SIGNAGE CEASEFIRE

I — CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES
No further advertising signs or burger-related teritorial-markers shall be deployed.

II — FREEZING OF POSITIONS
All existing signage shall remain in place pending diplomatic negotiations.

III — MUTUAL RESTRAINT
Both parties shall refrain from provocative meal photography and aggressive cheese imagery.

IV — INDEPENDENT OBSERVATION
I shall personally monitor compliance and report violations to Veydran High Command.

03 // THE McBJ™ PEACE INITIATIVE

In the interests of lasting peace, I propose that McDonald's withdraw from its current position and extend a gesture of goodwill towards Big Jon of BJ's Burger Shack.

I have provisionally designated this diplomatic arrangement the McBJ™.

It is my sincere hope that, by McDonald's pulling out and giving Jon a McBJ™, both parties will be fully satisfied and this regrettable conflict can finally reach a happy ending.

I trust nobody will find these terms objectionable.

04 // REQUEST FOR OFFICIAL DOCUMENTARY STATEMENT

The territorial dispute is the subject of a VRAXFLIX investigative documentary:
THE BURGER WARS — THE BATTLE OF THE A57.

I invite McDonald's to provide an official statement for inclusion. A written statement is welcome; an authorised representative may alternatively agree to a recorded interview.

Please send your statement or any enquiries to: alieneatsearth@proton.me

I would welcome clarification on who authorised the additional signs, whether further reinforcements are planned, and whether McDonald's supports the proposed ceasefire and the McBJ™ peace initiative.

Participation is voluntary. If no statement is received before publication, the documentary will record that McDonald's was invited to comment.

05 // FINAL DIPLOMATIC OBSERVATIONS

I respectfully request a response within 48 Earth hours, where practicable. I hope we can resolve this without involving the local planning authority. I have reviewed their regulations. Your civilisation is not ready for that level of suffering.
